

Spitfire Amber Fat

England

Type: Fat, Mørk ale

Produkt:

This 4.2 % Kentish ale was first brewed in 1990 to commemorate the Battle of Britain which was fought in the skies above Kent 50 years earlier. The beer is named after the legendary Spitfire aeroplane designed by RJ Mitchell. The versatility of the aircraft and the courage of its pilots were essential to victory and were a key symbol of the spirit of that time.

Vectura nr 150982
EPD nr 5302559
Emballasje Fat
Antall 1

Detaljert informasjon

Karakteristikk

Farge Mørk gylden
Duft Fruktig, humle, karamell
Smak Fruktig, karamell, hint av syltetøy, røde druer og pepper.

Analyse

Volum 30 ltr
Alkohol 4,2 %

Passer til

Allergener: Byggmalt

Bruk av alkohol kan gi ulike skadevirkninger. Mer informasjon; klikk her

Råstoff

Malt type Tre typer Kentish humle