Innis & Gunn Original

Scotland

Type: Micro/Craft, Lager

Product:

This is our firstborn brew, whose accidental discovery started our story in 2003. Its originality also lies in its singular taste - notes of biscuity malt and vanilla swirling within a creamy, mellow character. A pioneering beer, its flavour finds favour with brewing juries, blind tasting panels and barflies alike.

THE CRAFT BEER STORY

Our beer's distinctive depth of flavour owes a debt to good fortune. In 2002 a famous whisky distiller approached us for help. They were seeking to season some of their oak casks with the sweet, malty character of a full-flavoured beer. All the previous attempts had failed.

Eager to assist, we created a custom-made recipe and the resulting brew was put to bed in their barrels.
